“Now there was in Joppa a disciple named Tabitha, which, translated, means Dorcas. She was full of good works and acts of charity” (Acts 9:36).

One of my favorite women of the Bible is Dorcas. She is known and respected for the selfless way she lived her life.

We're told she was a “disciple.” That is, she was a follower of Christ. Dorcas learned and applied Jesus' example and teaching. It's no wonder then that she was “full of good works and acts of charity.” She wasn't one to simply talk about doing good. Dorcas wasn't a woman filled with good intentions which she never carried out. She wasn't that person who never gets around to doing what needs to be done. She cared about others. She wanted to be a help to others. Thus, Dorcas (in doing what God would have her do, and being what God would have her be) was a doer for others.

May we all be imitators of Dorcas as she imitated Christ. May we readily serve others.
