

A Bible That's Falling Apart Usually Belongs To Someone Who Isn't

www.northsidehillsboro.com

A Little Wisdom From

facebook

A Bible That's Falling Apart Usually Belongs To Someone Who Isn't

- Bible study commanded under the OT.
 - The duty of the kings.
Deut. 17:18-20 cf. Joshua 1:7-8
 - The duty of parents.
Deut. 6:6-9; Ps. 78:5-7
 - The benefits of study.
Ps. 1:1-3; 119:9-10

A Bible That's Falling Apart Usually Belongs To Someone Who Isn't

- Bible study commanded under the NT.
 - An individual responsibility.
2 Tim. 2:15; Acts 17:11
 - A quality of a child of God.
John 8:31-32; 1 John 4:1; Rev. 1:3

A Bible That's Falling Apart Usually Belongs To Someone Who Isn't

- The results of bible study.
 - Will help us overcome the enemy.
Matt. 4:4; Eph. 6:10-13, 14-17
 - Will help us grow in our relationship with God.
2 Pet. 3:18; 1:5-11
 - Will secure our salvation.
James 1:21; 1 Pet. 1:22-25; 1 Tim. 4:13, 16

STEPS OF SALVATION:

FROM SINNER TO SAVED

